or by appointment

Course Summary

Math 25 is a course in the application of basic mathematics to everyday situations.

Most class days have their own activity.

Read the day's activity before class!

A brief review of the reading and instructor example problems precede group work activities. Homework is turned in individually on Moodle. Expect about 6 hours of work per week.

Please refer to the workbook for grading information and the class website for our calendar and other information.

Disability Resources Notice

If you need support or assistance because of a disability, you may be eligible for academic accommodations through Disability Resources. For more information contact Disability Resources at (541) 463-5150 (voice), or 463-3079 (TTY), or stop by Building 1, Room 218.

CALENDAR DATES

By LCC policy, missing two classes during the first week causes you to be dropped from the class.

Winter Term's holidays are both on a Monday and do not affect our class.

Our final is Tuesday, March 20th at 8am.

Materials Needed

Bring the workbook, reference book(s), paper, a pencil, and a calculator that can do exponents and has a π key.

Emergency Procedures

Phone Numbers

Student Health: Ext 6666 (or 463-6666)

Security: Ext 5555 (or 463-5555)

Ambulance or Sheriff: 911

Evacuation Routes

Follow instructor's directions to exit the building or follow the exit signs. Walk, don't run. Move away from the building.

Fire: Pull alarm in hallway. Exit building and stay low if smoke impairs breathing and vision.

Earthquake: Duck and cover under desk, away from windows until motion stops. Then evacuate.

Public Phone

Building 16 has phones in the SE and NW second floor lobbies, outside rooms 202 and 226.

Bad Weather

Listen to KLCC (FM 89.7) or KUGN (AM 590 or FM 97.9) for campus closure info. If roads are icy or snowy, depart early and drive very carefully. Watch for black ice in shady locations on freezing temperature days. Please do not call LCC or KLCC. If absent, use the class website to read the assignments and be ready to quickly go over missed material.
